Dr. Rhonda Kyncl received both her M.A. and Ph.D. from the University of Oklahoma in Composition, Rhetoric, and Literacy. She also earned an M.S. degree in Technology and Business from Pittsburg State University in Pittsburg, Kansas. She currently serves as the Associate Dean for Students in the College of Arts & Sciences at the University of Oklahoma, where she oversees academic advising, study abroad, and student engagement programming for the college. She also oversees the college's Withrow Leadership Scholars program and teaches English Composition I and 2, Writing for the Medical Fields, as well as a Capstone course for the college.

Dr. Dean Kyncl oversees a staff of 15 advisers and other support staff and is a 2011 alum of the Educator's Leadership Academy.

Dean Kyncl's husband, David, is also a staff member at OU as an adviser and recruiter in the OU College of Architecture. They have two children: Mary, who is a senior in the College of Education at OU, and Jonathan, who is a first-year student in the Gaylord College of Journalism.