Sample Nomination Letter

It is my pleasure to nominate Jane Doe, Executive Assistant, University Student Services, for the 1st Quarter (July-September) Exceptional Performance Award. Jane has worked with me for the past three years, and I am impressed by the exceptional quality of service she provides to everyone who contacts this office. Specifically, her work during Homecoming was exceptional.

Impact: Jane's attention to detail was highlighted in the way she prepared for every event. For example, at the Homecoming block party, she expanded the standard task list to include details that she had personally noted after last year's block party. By doing so, she was able to ensure that an information table was added, extra trash and recycling bins were placed in the high traffic areas, and adequate signage indicating restrooms, parking options and event booths were displayed.

Effectiveness: Jane coordinated her efforts with specific departments, planning well in advance to ensure that everything was ready for what appeared to be an effortless event. However, I saw the hours she spent reserving food, tables, chairs, and fire permits for the all-you-can-eat chili dog dinner, as well as having a solid back-up plan ready in case of bad weather. With all the preparation she put into the event, people moved through the lines quickly, easily finding adequate seating and food.

Innovation: The addition of the fenced pet patio for those who brought their dogs was a surprising, well received addition to the all-you-can-eat chili dog dinner. Jane made sure there was water for the animals, supplies for cleaning up any messes, and even a dog biscuit for each pet when they left the patio with their owners.

Significance: Homecoming was attended by a large mixture of students, faculty, staff, parents, friends and alumni. Having an event that ran so smoothly not only boosted school morale, but it also raised significant scholarship funds for the Development office and provided the Parents and Family Association a fun platform for enrolling new members.

Homecoming was a fantastic experience. We received numerous emails and calls from attendees thanking us for such a positive event, but Jane Doe definitely deserves the accolades. If it weren't for her exceptional performance, none of this would have been possible.

Sincerely,

John Smith, Ph.D.

Vice President University Student Services
