AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT POLICY STATEMENT

U.S. Department of Justice — Americans with Disabilities Act

The University of Central Oklahoma is committed to complying with all applicable provisions of the Americans with Disabilities Act ("ADA"). It is the University's policy not to discriminate against any otherwise qualified employee or applicant with regard to any terms or conditions of employment because of such individual's disability or perceived disability. Consistent with this policy of nondiscrimination, the University will provide reasonable accommodations to a qualified individual with a disability, as defined by the ADA, who has made the University aware of his or her disability, provided that such accommodation does not constitute an undue hardship on the University.

Employees with a disability who believe they need a reasonable accommodation to perform the essential functions of their job should contact their supervisor and Employee Relations and Development in the Offices of Human Resources. The University of Central Oklahoma encourages individuals with disabilities to request reasonable accommodation.

Procedure for Processing an ADA Accommodation Request

On receipt of an accommodation request, a representative from the Offices of Human Resources will meet with the employee and supervisor to discuss and identify the precise limitations resulting from the disability and the potential accommodation the University might make to help overcome those limitations.

Consistent with this policy of nondiscrimination, the University will engage in an interactive process to provide reasonable accommodations to a qualified individual with a disability, as defined by the ADA, upon specific notice of a disability or if the University becomes aware of an individual's disability, provided such accommodation does not constitute an undue hardship on the University. As part of the process, potential accommodations may be attempted on a trial or short-term basis.

An employee with a disability who believes he or she needs a reasonable accommodation or adaptation to perform the essential functions of their job is encouraged to contact their supervisor and Employee Relations in the Offices of Human Resources.

Procedure for Processing an ADA Accommodation Request

Upon notice of an accommodation request or need, a representative from the Offices of Human Resources will expeditiously meet with the employee and supervisor to discuss and identify the precise limitations resulting from the disability and the potential accommodation the University might make to help overcome those limitations.

DRUG AND ALCOHOL USE AND TESTING POLICY

C. Post-Accident Testing: If an employee or another person has sustained any injury while at work, or if the University’s property has been damaged, including damage to equipment.

C. Post-Accident Testing: If an employee is involved in an accident while at work (with or without immediate personal injury) and has sustained an injury (at the time of the accident or if reported subsequently), has injured another person, and/or any property has been damaged, he/she will be required to complete drug and alcohol testing.

CONFLICT OF INTEREST AND BUSINESS ETHICS

Acceptance of Gifts

No employee may solicit or accept gifts of significant value (i.e., in excess of $100.00) or lavish entertainment or other benefits from potential and actual customers, vendors, suppliers, or competitors. Special care must be taken to avoid even the impression of a conflict of interest. An employee may entertain potential or actual customers if such entertainment is consistent with accepted business practices, does not violate any law or generally accepted ethical standards and the public disclosure of facts will not embarrass the University. Any questions regarding this should be addressed to Employee Relations and Development in the Offices of Human Resources.

No employee may solicit or accept gifts of significant value (i.e., in excess of $50.00) or lavish entertainment or other benefits from potential and actual customers, vendors, suppliers, or competitors. Special care must be taken to avoid even the impression of a conflict of interest. The Oklahoma State Ethics Commission regularly monitors the acceptance of gifts from any vendor or individual who does business with a state entity. If any gift is received, it must be something that can be shared with other employees in the group or department. No state employee may accept any gift of an alcoholic beverage from any vendor doing business with UCO. In addition, state employees cannot accept meals from a vendor with a value in excess of $20.00 per occasion and a maximum amount of $50.00 per calendar year. Any gifts received that are not consistent with the definitions outlined in this document must be returned. An employee may entertain potential or actual customers if such entertainment is consistent with accepted business practices, does not violate any law or generally accepted ethical standards and the public disclosure of facts will not embarrass the University. Any questions regarding this should be addressed to Employee Relations in the Offices of Human Resources.
ANTI-NEPOTISM IN THE EMPLOYMENT OF RELATIVES

Exception requests should be submitted in writing to Employee Relations and Development in the Offices of Human Resources.

Exceptions require RUSO Board approval. Exception requests for staff and student employees should be submitted in writing to Employee Relations in the Offices of Human Resources.

WORKPLACE RELATIONSHIPS

Consenting romantic or sexual relationships between employees, and especially between a supervisor/manager and an employee, may at some point lead to complications and significant difficulties for all concerned — the employee(s), supervisor/manager, co-workers, and UCO.

If a romantic or sexual relationship between employees occurs that violates the anti-nepotism policy, the involved employees must disclose the existence of the relationship to Employee Relations and Development in the Offices of Human Resources. If the relationship is between a supervisor/manager and an employee, it shall be the responsibility and mandatory obligation of the supervisor/manager to promptly disclose the existence of the relationship. The employee may make the disclosure as well, but the burden of doing so shall be upon the supervisor/manager.

Consenting romantic or sexual relationships between employees, and especially between a supervisor/manager and an employee, may at some point lead to complications and significant difficulties for all concerned — the employee(s), supervisor/manager, co-workers, and UCO. For this reason, consenting romantic or sexual relationships between a supervisor/manager and a subordinate are expressly prohibited.

If a romantic or sexual relationship between employees occurs that violates the anti-nepotism policy, the involved employees must disclose the existence of the relationship to Employee Relations in the Offices of Human Resources.

BENEFIT OPTIONS

Voluntary Coverage

Voluntary coverage for cancer insurance, short-term disability, long-term care, accident insurance and additional voluntary life insurance are available for a cost to the employee.

Leave Share

The Leave Share Program is an annual program offered to sick-leave eligible employees who have exhausted all annual leave and sick leave due to illness, injury, impairment, physical or mental condition, which is of an extraordinary or severe nature and involves the employee, or eligible family member as defined under FLMA guidelines. The benefit provides up to two (2) months of full base pay, and up to an additional four (4) months of half-pay.

Employees must be employed a minimum of twelve (12) consecutive months to be eligible for participation. To sign up and participate in the program for the upcoming year, participants must have a minimum sick leave balance of eighty-eight (88) hours and donate a minimum of eight (8) hours of sick leave in March.

The University funds and offers a Leave Share Program for employees who have exhausted all annual leave and sick leave due to illness, injury, impairment, physical or mental condition, which is of an extraordinary or severe nature that involves the employee or a related person of the employee.

Full-time active employees with 80 hours of sick leave accrued and at least one year of service will be enrolled in the Leave Share Program each year in the month of January. Those participating in the program must have on-going sick leave balance of at least (80) hours immediately prior to the hardship caused by a severe illness or injury. This will allow participation in the program for the calendar year should the need arise.

Employees must be employed a minimum of twelve (12) consecutive months to be able to participate in the program. Those wishing to participate, but have not been employed 12 months, will be enrolled in the month of their first anniversary if they have 80 hours of sick leave accrued.

INJURED ON THE JOB

The UCO Workers' Compensation program is intended to provide medical treatment, disability leave, and supplemental wages, as necessary, to eligible employees in the event that they experience a work-related injury or illness.

If an employee is injured in the scope of employment, regardless of how minor it may seem, the employee shall report the injury to his or her supervisor and to the Workers’ Compensation Coordinator within 24 hours of the accident. The Workers’ Compensation Coordinator will arrange any needed medical treatment, and will assist in completing required injury-reporting paperwork.
