Students who successfully complete the requirements for a BFA in Theatre Design and Technology will be able to:

1. Apply aesthetic and analytical principles through the design process.
2. Apply engineering principles through the technical processes.
3. Develop and defend informed judgments about theatre.
4. Demonstrate effective communication in a timely manner.
5. Apply effective leadership and management skills.
6. Consistently apply appropriate health and safety recommendations as they pertain best practices or industry standards.
7. Prepare, present and promote their own talents through professional development.
8. Adhere to ethical standard of the theatre industry.