Students who successfully complete the requirements for a BFA in Theatre Performance will be able to:

1. Demonstrate fundamental knowledge and critical awareness of theatre in verbal and written formats.

2. Apply physical, vocal, emotional, and analytical skills in acting and performance.

3. Work collaboratively in all aspects of acting and performance.

4. Demonstrate requisite theatre proficiencies, including adaptability, communication, task orientation, and time management.

5. Apply knowledge, skills, and proficiencies in professional acting and performance.

6. Adhere to the ethical principles of professional acting and performance.