Summer Internship Opportunity at the Pioneer Woman Museum

The Pioneer Woman Museum, located in Ponca City, OK, is looking for interns to help in their collection area over the summer and possibly fall. They have a number of small to medium sized collections that need to be catalogued, photographed, and entered into Past Perfect.

The ideal candidate will have a basic working knowledge of PastPerfect software, the care and handling of fragile artifacts, the protocol of working in a collection and working with others. Ideally they would be able to work with another staff member or senior volunteer.

For more information, about this and other intern and volunteer opportunities at the Pioneer Woman Museum, please contact museum director, Robbin Davis, Tuesday - Saturday, 9am - 5pm via phone or email. 580-765-6108 or piown@okhistory.org.
