Study Abroad Process - Here are the basic steps to take if you're interested in studying abroad:

- Obtain an updated academic Degree Check from your academic advisor
  - Must include an unofficial or advisor's copy of your transcript listing overall GPA and information about how many free electives are available within your degree program.
- Schedule a meeting with the Assistant Director of Education Abroad by writing to cgc@uco.edu with available days/times to meet. Our office is located in the Nigh University Center, NUC137.
- Research programs and course options through the UCO study abroad website prior to your initial study abroad appointment: uco.edu/cgc. Select "Study Abroad Destinations" in the menu on the left.

Study Abroad Forms - Once you have selected a program, you will complete the additional forms below:

- Counseling and Wellness Pre-Screening
  - Visit the Center for Counseling and Well-Being (NUC402) to take the study abroad screening. Bring the receipt slip to the study abroad office; be sure your name is listed at the top of the slip.
- Course Evaluation Form
  - Download course descriptions and/or syllabi from the program website.
  - Speak with either your academic advisor or appropriate faculty department chair to find out which courses may count toward your degree program.
  - Complete the top portion of the form and return it with the course syllabi to the study abroad advisor.
- Financial Aid Forms - If you would like to apply UCO or federal financial aid to your study abroad program, you must schedule an appointment in the study abroad office to discuss and complete the following forms:
  - Study Abroad Aid Application*
  - Cost Worksheet*
- Program Application - submit by appropriate deadline; please note that many partner universities require an official nomination from the study abroad office.

Tina Kirk, MBA
Assistant Director of Education Abroad

Since the launch of the Centre for Global Competency (CGC), more than 1,400 UCO students have participated in a study abroad experience. Tina joined the CGC in 2017 to engage even more UCO students in transformative learning abroad. Her wide-ranging experience includes director-level positions in international education at Yale University and Randolph College; Peace Corps service in Russia; and study abroad in England. She hopes to see you soon!
