STUDENT GRADES

Student users can view their midterm and final grades for each course by term. Users can change the term displayed and change the number of courses displayed in the portlet via the Preferences link. If there are more records than can be displayed in the portlet, the user will see a more link to click to display the portlet in focus mode. If there are holds on a student's grades, the portlet displays a message stating that grades are not available due to holds.

ACADEMIC PROFILE

This portlet shows the student's class standing (freshman, sophomore, junior, senior), degree, level (undergraduate, graduate), program, Admit and Catalog Term (determines the catalog from which a student must base their degree requirements). It also shows the student's advisor's name and give access transcript and hold information.

MY COURSES AND SCHEDULES

- Class Schedule: Shows the student's current class schedule and the ability to select a date from the calendar to check the schedule. Links to the classes in this view go directly to the Learn@UCO course page without a separate log in (single-sign-on).
- My Degree Plan: Allows an unofficial, self-service degree audit based on specific majors and catalog year. Also known as DegreeWorks, this online software loads information about your declared major, credits earned, and GPA from Banner into the DegreeWorks system on a nightly basis. You and your advisor can use it as a tool to plan your academic career.
- My Schedules: See concise and day by day schedules of classes by term directly from the Self-Service Banner system. These views of your schedule are easier to print than the Class Schedule portlet above.
