**Students falling below these standards may qualify for conditional admission. See Admissions to Graduate Studies \(p.13\).*

Other Requirements

- Entrance Advisory Examination. Complete the written Entrance Advisory Examination in music history, music theory, and writing skills after admission to the graduate program and prior to attending classes. A passing grade of 70% is required. Students falling below 70% may make up any deficiency in an individual area or areas by enrolling in Music History Survey, Music Theory survey, and Writing About Music as determined by the graduate advisor. These courses must be completed with a grade of B or better.
- Diction. Candidates in Vocal Performance, Vocal Pedagogy, and Collaborative Piano must demonstrate proficiency in Italian, French and German diction, either through a record of diction study at the undergraduate level or through examination. Candidates deemed deficient must take the relevant undergraduate course or courses concurrent with their graduate study.

- Plan of Study. Each student must file a plan of study with the graduate program advisor and the Jackson College of Graduate Studies (JCGS) by the end of the first semester of graduate work. The plan must be signed and dated by the student and the graduate program advisor before it can be considered official.
- Academic Standards. Meet the following course work standards:
  - Overall GPA of 3.00 or higher.
  - No more than 6 hours of "C".
  - No more than six advisor-approved hours from traditional correspondence courses.
- Culminating Project. Candidates in each major must successfully complete a culminating project. Vocal Pedagogy majors must complete a recital of 40 minutes and a supervised research project of a nature relevant to professional practice and evaluated by a committee of three members of the graduate faculty in the field.
- Comprehensive Examination. The degree candidate must at the end of study pass a comprehensive examination based on all previous instruction and relevant general knowledge of music. The comprehensive Examination will consist of both written and oral examinations. No later than the final week of the previous semester, the candidate must inform the graduate advisor of the readiness to take the examination in the following semester. The Comprehensive Examination Committee will consist of the candidate's major instructor, one member of the academic music faculty and a member of the graduate faculty in music of the candidate's own choosing.
- Final Requirements. Apply for graduation through the JCGS by the advertised deadline.
